WOMAN WITH PURPLE HAIR—

Mrs. James Kaiser, of Hempstead, L. I., wants $10,000 from Mme. Julia Coates, a Brooklyn hairdresser, because, as she claims, Mrs. Coates turned her hair from gray to purple, and consequently made her an object of ridicule. Mrs. Kaiser says she wanted to hide a gray streak in her black hair, and that Mrs. Coates guaranteed a certain lotion to do the work. Mrs. Kaiser, after she had applied the application, went out for a drive, and when she returned her hair had turned a brilliant purple.
She washed it, but the more she washed the deeper the purple became. Mme. Coates says the directions on the bottle were not followed.

Schley will make a tour of several southern states in the fall.

Francisco to cost $2,000,000.

Marco Bragna, a merchant of considerable wealth, has been convicted at San Antonio, Tex., of receiving stolen property and given 10 years in the penitentiary. Bragna was connected with the organized gang which has been pilfering southwest Texas towns for some years and which was recently broken up.

Upon the complaint of his alleged eight wife, formerly Mrs. Mary A.
Parker, of Plattsbury, Mo., Christian C. Nelson, alias Capt. A. N. Freeland, alias John Anderson, alias Nelson Porter, was arrested in San Antonio, Tex., recently at a hotel while in company with his alleged ninth wife, formerly Mrs. A. E. Milburn, whom he married at Fort Scott two weeks ago.

The Steamer Menominee has sailed for London, carrying 40 Montana ponies consigned to W. E. Drury, the veteran English polo expert.
American ponies are in great demand among players of polo in England this year, and shortly every Atlantic transport ship which sails from here carries a bunch of these sturdy little animals.

CURES SCIATIC RHEUMATISM.

Mrs. A. E. Simpson, 509 Craig St., Knoxville, Tenn., writes June 10, 1899:
"I have been trying the baths at Hot Springs, Ark., for sciatic rheumatism, but I get more relief from Ballard's Snow Liniment than any medicine or anything I have ever tried. Enclosed find postoffice order for $1.00. Send me a large bottle by Southern Express." Sold by Ackerman & Stewart, Palatka,
